THE FIRST UNITED STATES MINT

This double house on Seventh St. in Philadelphia once housed our United States Mint. George Washington who lived near by was known to visit it daily. Some of his copper pots were melted and used in the striking of our first large cents in 1793. They are known as the chain or link cents because of the design of a circled chain on the reverse, also as the wreath cents, they are very scarce. The first guard of the mint was a dog named Nero, purchased for $3.00. The workers hours at the mint were 5 A.M. to 7 P.M.

FIRST COIN PRESS

This is a photo of the first coin press used at the Philadelphia Mint. It was operated by hand and could produce 120 coins per minute. Our modern day presses can strike thousands of coins per hour.

This press is 4 x 4 feet and was built in 1793. It can be seen at the Philadelphia mint. They are open to the visiting public five days. The mint is closed on Saturdays.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

With this issue the 66th annual A.N.A. convention at Philadelphia will be numismatic history. The Federal Coin Exchange of Cleveland, Ohio will have conducted the auction under the direction of Michael Kolman Jr. An 8x11 catalogue of 102 pages of the lot listing has been made up and sent to interested collectors. 3,634 lots with many descriptive photos and interesting information are included.

The high-lights of this auction will be published in our next issue.

—o—

A new time saver for the collector and dealer has been introduced by the E-Z Coin Wrapper Company of St. Paul, Minn. It is a tray built with a special tapered design to accommodate all denominations of coins, and the wrapping of quantity of rolls. Their display ad are in these pages.

—o—

Grading Standards have been a problem to our hobby and I would like to offer a few comments and suggestions to our readers to help them enjoy this hobby. There is no law stating one cannot grade his coins as he pleases. Should you be offered a coin as say fine and in your opinion it is only V.G. either reject or accept it. There is also no law stating you must accept it. If you accept don't try to sell it as Fine.

The numismatic hobby has through the years set up a standard guide of grading for the convenience of the hobbyist to go by, which I might add is a good system and should be abided by. Our advertisers and readers are asked to comply with our standards and those used by the leading guide books.

Every few issues we publish our General Rules and Information column, which contains grading information - helpful items for your guidance.

We will, whenever time and space permits, insert photos and items of grading to this problem. The Grade listing of X.F.-A.U. can be confusing, and at times accepted as about the same, but, there is a definite variance and when classified, only one or the other should be used. A.U. means About Uncirculated, meaning it is uncirculated, but has rubbing, or slight worn spot or being circulated for a short time but retaining most of its lustre. X.F. meaning (extra Fine) is a circulated coin but has little or no wear and no mint lustre. Some coins sold as X.F. may contain some lustre, it is here that conflict begins. Many collectors when purchasing coins X.F. expect the coin to contain some lustre. Many early dated coins, for example copper lost their lustre but are brown or discolored dark. Many others are classed as Brown Unc. with no lustre which is correct. Therefore an X.F. coin need not have lustre. Many times a dealer sells a coin in a condition better than offered or as stated, or as complimentary; because of having a large quantity or because he ran short but wished to fill the order. This could mislead the collector, especially if he is a beginner. There are many early proof coins having no lustre but are genuine proofs.

The early large cents is a good point, being pure copper it oxidizes quicker than a silver coin, it could easily be misstruck, due to the soft metal and defective die, making it appear as wear and yet be fine, but appearing as good or V.G. For this reason it is next to impossible to find a complete set of large cents in uncirculated condition.

The A.U. classification is a new listing used by dealers in recent years to further describe their coins and has eventually been in use by all.

The question of Uncirculated occasionally has come up. Many unc. coins may lose some of their brilliance but are still unc. A Gem Unc. coin is worth more than an unc. A dealer may let a Gem coin go at the price of an unc. due to the same circumstances stated in the previous paragraph and again mislead the buyer who in turn may reject a purchase which is unc. but expects a gem. Of course more power to them if they can strike up a good deal. A Gem coin is unusually well struck. Usually they are the first pieces struck from a die used in striking proofs.

More about grading in our next issue. Comments and suggestions on grading are welcomed, please write to the editor.

Clarence M. Fink noted writer from 296 Ohio St., Pasadena, Cal. has published a booklet series #1 entitled Modern Coin Collectors, "History Of The World". It contains articles of English coins, Canadian tokens, Early currency and illustration photos. It is priced at $1.00. This booklet lists 667 Canadian tokens with a rarity scale listing. Mr. Fink hopes to submit some interesting articles of numismatics for the "Eaglet" in the future.

1908 CENT

The Designers Initials V.D.B.

The above Lincoln cents 1908-1909 V.D.B. has some interesting points, at the same time they can be of some help on the grading of the Lincoln cent.

The 1908 was submitted by a reader in one of our previous issues. It looks like the real thing, but nature and age had a hand in this. Some how a corrosion pit formed on the digit 1 the actual date being 1918 thus leaving a cavity in the form of an 0. This coin should not be graded better than good. A coin graded V.G. should have part of the ear showing, with some wheat lines on the stalks of the reverse side.

The reverse of the 1909 cent is shown with the initials V.D.B. (Victor D. Brenner) the (3) arrows point to the wheat stalks, and initials. This cent is unc. An X.F. coin would look the same as this except it would not have lustre or wear. As of 1918 the designers initials were put at the base of Lincolns shoulder between the rim. Inspection of an unc. cent with a magnifying glass at this point will show (3) dots resembling V.D.B.

UN-CUT SHEETS

I have over 250 different Un-Cut Sheets of Broken Bank Bills in my personal Collection. I will consider any Sheets I do not have that are priced within reason. I have many duplicate Sheets that I will trade for items I need or will sell out-right for reasonable prices.

Silver Dols. $1.35 each in Rolls of 20. I have the following dates mostly Brill. Unc. with a few Abt. Unc. 1880-O, 1881-S, 1882-S, 1884-O, 1885-O, 1885, 1886. Yes I know these are among the lowest prices that have been seen, but here they are, so order promptly. Remember the Rolls will be mixed with above mentioned dates.

Set of Miniature National Bank Notes of the First Charter Period. The Set contains the following: $5.00, $10.00, $20.00, $50.00, $100. $500.00 and $1000.00. V.F. to perfect. The Gov. allowed these to be issued in the early days, and the Treasurer's permission is given on the back of each. If a full Set of 9 pieces has sold for around $200.00 then this Set of 7 pieces lacking only the 2 lower denomination Notes is certainly a bargain at $97.50

LETTER OF COMMENT

It pays to read every line in the "Eaglet".

Dear Sir:

Just woke up to the fact that I'm a winner in your 2nd Anniversary Contest! Shows that ya just gotta read everything, especially the front page!

My number 946 came up under the one year free classified wording — so here's my ad on the attached sheet — 20 words to run under the "FOR TRADE OR SALE" heading. And if I'm as lucky as I was in the contest I'll get a nice set of FE's and Indians for the two fine oil paintings I want to trade.

Thanks for the winner — and good luck to your great little paper!

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find two dollars ($2.00) to continue my subscription for another year.

I received my copy and read with interest, Earl A. McBrayer's report on the Upper Midwest Coin Collectors Convention.

I obtained a nice U.S. Twenty cent coin from this catalogue. Have done business with Mr. Leo A. Young the Auctioneer and always found him reliable.

The "Flying Eaglet" is a good coin collector's item, and I want to stay with my F.E. #653

—Joseph Haggerty
Hoboken, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am a subscriber to your fine and wonderful publication. I have sent for quite a few coins from it and was very well pleased. I am a beginner and have quite a few foreign coins, having at least one from 36 countries and trying to add more. I wish to sell or trade. I have put two years in Japan with 1 yr. here in Germany, with two more to go. Most of my buddies are on leave now, but will interest them in your fine journal soon as they return.

Editor's note: Some of our readers may be able to help you. Best wishes to you and your buddies.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed 25¢ stamps, please send current issue of the Flying Eaglet.

Perhaps your readers would like to know that while on my vacation in Maine this summer I ran across 450 2¢ pieces and was able to put together almost a complete collection, the 73 proof was the only coin I could not find. The 64SM was fair while the 72 was Fine, also from the same source I bought 1300 Indian Heads, improving my collection besides making a little on the deal.

Leo Abrams of E. Orange, N. J. would like to know what a "Trime" is. He noted this in an auction catalogue received from a coin company.

Editor's note: Can any of our readers supply the answer?

A two legged 1936 buffalo nickel G-V.G. has been found by Jack Feierstein of 67-38 108th Street, Forest Hills, N. Y.

Editor's note: I inspected this coin at the Newark Coin Club's August meeting, a front and rear leg is missing. It resembles the 3 legged 1937-D nickel. One of these has been offered for sale at $100.00. Better check your nickels!

NOTICE

I have at times received comments about our title "The Flying Eaglet" not being a suitable name for a coin publication.

I have been considering to change the title to a more descriptive name which would refer to the Numismatic hobby, coins, money, etc. as an identification. With due respect to other periodicals, the following titles seem with while considering:

 Popular Numismatics
 The Numismatic Courier
 The Numismatic Post
 The Numismatic Exchange
 The Numismatic Collector

I would like to receive the opinion and comments of our readers, for or against, to change the original name to another. Possibly some of our readers can help by suggesting a fitting name or agree with any of the above names. Your editor would be pleased to hear from you.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is check for $6.50 for another year's subscription to the Flying Eaglet and for 1 year's classified wording.

We would like to report that the response has been much better in the last few months than the former months! This seems unusual especially in the summer season. Our reasoning would lead us to the conclusion that the circulation must be greatly increased.

—John H. Small
 Buffalo, N. Y.

Editor's note: That's correct — some 600 new subscriptions within the last five months.

—oOo—

Dear Frank:

could like some information. I would like to get a coin book that to deal with U.S. Paper money. Seems like I've seen somewhere way back in the Flying Eaglet where such a book could be had but can't locate it right now.

Also what has happened to our friend Chas. Augelli. I have not seen an ad from him in the last two Eaglets. Has he gone out of business? Hope not. I've done quite a lot of business with him and have found him to be O. K.

I am enclosing a check in the amount of $7.00 for which please add $5.00 worth of subscriptions to myself and $2.00 for the 11th edition of the red book. I am now paid up to June, 1958, so add the $5.00 to that. Sure don't want to be without the Flying Eaglet. It's getting better every issue.

COIN COLLECTOR IS ### CHARGED WITH LARCENY

A clipping received from a reader states Eugene Knerr of Lantana, was arrested in Milwaukee. Deputy Sheriff Ralph Clark flew there with (3) warrants. Knerr is accused of bilking the following collectors of $6,725. Arthur Schaap, Joseph Bates, and Charles Boos. Mr. Boos had his coins checked when visiting N.Y. and was told they were worthless. The other two men subsequently had their purchases checked by other experts, they too were told of a slight imperfection between the letters. Knerr is accused of polishing unc. 1936 coins to resemble the scarce and valuable 1936 proof sets, valued at $450.00 a set. A genuine proof set has a glossy mirror-like finish. Knerr denied the charges. He admitted selling sets of coins, but claimed he believed them to be original rare coins.

ANCIENT COIN PORTRAITS

by Earl A. McBrayer

One of the shortest reigns in imperial Roman history took place when Marcus Antonius Gordianus became emperor. He reigned exactly thirty-six days in 238 A.D.

The poor fellow was definitely a victim of circumstances. Gordianus was minding his own business as proconsul of Africa and attempting to live his last days in peaceful contemplation when his friends decided that they had suffered enough under the ruthless emperor Maximinus I.

Despite the fact that Gordianus was eighty-one years old he was nominated as the best likely candidate to be accepted by the Senate and the people of Rome. His reputation for intelligence and moral integrity was well known to everyone in Rome. Besides Gordianus was immensely wealthy and could be counted upon to give away large sums of money and huge celebrations in the eternal city.

Unfortunately before Gordianus could leave Africa for Rome where the Senate had proclaimed him Gordian I, his son was killed in battle against troops of the governor of Mauretania. Upon hearing of this disaster Gordian I promptly took his own life.

During the month and six days of rule a small number of coins were struck in honor of Gordian I and his son (called Gordian II). Pictured is a sestertius (large bronze) with an excellent portrait of the ill fated Gordianus. Value of the coin in Very Fine is twenty-five to thirty dollars.

1956 SILVER CENT FIND

Charles Augelli, our regular advertiser and dealer in Rolls of coins found this silver cent last year, in a $50. bank bag. The present market value of this cent Unc. is $100. Charles said he would part with it for (20) B.U. rolls of 1943-D nickels or (15) B.U. rolls of 1948-S nickels, scarce Lincoln rolls.

Charles has recently spent a month vacation touring Florida. His full page ad is included in this issue. We hope to have a cut of this photo for our next issue.

Sheraton-Palace Hotel- Program:
"Postage Stamps Used as Money"

The 42nd Birthday Meeting of the PCNS was a grand success. The food was excellent and the program was enjoyed by all. (Mrs.) President Patterson came up with an unusual idea for our birthday cake — it was dressed up as a one dollar bill and because it looked so real there was a slight delay in serving it while the F.B.I. checked it over — however, it was circulated in quick order after they finished their survey. Mr. F. E. Howard was the speaker of the evening and his talk on "Hawaii - its money and its people" was very interesting. Again, many thanks Mr. Howard, we enjoyed it very much.

TORONTO COIN CLUB

The meeting of June 22nd was attended by 18 members and visitors with Dr. J. S. Wilkinson in the Chair.

There was no speaker scheduled for that, the first of three such summer meetings, but Mr. Favro gave a short talk on counterfeit coins and exhibited examples from Canada, The United States, Great Britain, and Mexico. Mr. Rosen displayed counterfeit copies of Canada of each denomination to the 50¢.

Mr. Rosen won the "admittance coin" draw, drawn by Fred Armstrong. It was decided not to hold an auction as there was not sufficient material on hand.

Current Notes: Owen Sound has issued wooden nickels to commemorate their centennial. Alberta prosperity Script for 1936 has been played up in the news recently, it seems that Premier Bennett of B.C. is doing a bit of horse trading in them. The June issue of True magazine featured quite a story about counterfeiting of British gold sovereigns a few years ago, on the assumption that the sovereign is no longer a current coin. The Standard Catalogue of Canadian and Newfoundland coins is now out and we recommend that collectors of Canadian series obtain their copy so as to keep up with the times.

The Collector's Club of Boston, one of the Club sponsors of the New England Numismatic Ass'n. Convention in Boston, Oct. 12-13-1957, meets in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, Boston the second Tuesday of each month except during July and August.

We are one of the fastest growing Coin Clubs in the Greater Boston Area. If you live in this area and do not belong to any Coin Club in this area, why not visit with us, or better still, why not join up with us at our Sept. Meeting.

Our Annual dues are $4.00 for adults and $1.00 for Junior members. Applications received before our Sept. meeting will be one half of the above, and dues will be paid to Dec. 31, 1957. Note from our Secty. All dues for 1957 are paid except one adult. Some record.

We have lined up for the Fall and Winter the following fine speakers. John J. Kittridge, Past Pres. of Worcester Club. Co. of Venice. Lewis W. Pollard, Confederate Coins & Currency.

Mr. James Ford Clapp Jr. Pres. of NENA for 1957, and all members of the Collector's Club of Boston, invite you to join with us at the 1957 Convention of NENA to be held in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, Boston, Oct. 12-13 - 1957.

Gold medals will be struck for this Convention, and can only be obtained by subscription to Aug. 31, 1957. To obtain these Gold medals please contact the undersigned.

New Jersey Numismatic Society

The 283rd meeting of the N. J. Numismatic Society was held on Thursday evening August 8th at the Military Park Hotel, Newark, New Jersey. Arthur Mershon presided and the Secretary read the minutes and communications. It seems there will be an exhibit this fall at the Newark Museum of exceedingly rare coins most of which were donated by an Honorary Charter Member, Frank Livwright and the exhibition will be mostly attributed and set up by members of our group.

There were the usual number in attendance at this meeting. "Paper Money Of The World", was the designation of the evening and brought out some interesting inflation currency. Arthur Mershon had various denomination notes from twenty three different countries. J. F. Thatcher had fractional, Continental and various foreign notes. J.A. Brown read one of his original articles from the "Veterans News", explaining the lengths some people will go to, to smuggle currency, also exhibited the worlds worst example of inflation, the Hungarian Pengo which was worth at one time 18 cents. This series of twelve notes ranged from ten thousand pengos in progression to 100 Quintillion.

It was an enjoyable and entertaining evening full of collectors sidelights and information.

—James A. Brown, Secy.-Treas.

NEWARK COIN CLUB MEETS

The eleventh meeting of the Newark Coin Club was held Tuesday evening August 13th at the Newark, N. J. building of the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. in the main ballroom. The minutes read and no corrections. A number of important proposals were acted upon and decided for action. A State Charter for the club was tabled for N. J. Law states that those signing it are liable in case of suit, so a scroll will be made up with the charter members names printed on it. The drawing for the door prize, which was won by Charles Lehrer the second time in a row gave him two nice coin reference books. The exhibitions for the evening, "Extra Large Coins And Medals", brought out several beautiful collections of long standing. Ralph Ullrich had Benjamin Franklin medals dating back to the French Revolution. John Brock had an Eisenhower Medal in silver, one of five hundred struck. Phil Rosenbaum as usual had rarities in quantity.

—James A. Brown, Pres.

French Franc Devaluated

The French government announced up to 20% will be devaluated from the franc, this is to meet with there financial crisis.

The official rate of exchange will be 450 francs to the dollar, it previously was 350 francs to the dollar. During the war a franc was worth 2¢ or 50 francs to the dollar. The English pound also has taken a few changes since the war, at one time it had a market exchange of $4.80 to a pound, today it is $2.79 to a pound.

NUMISMATIC FAMILY

William Fox Steinberg and family are shown together. Mr. Steinberg is known by all as "The Miami Rare Coin Co." of 2045 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, Florida. His travels all over the world makes him possible to acquire these rare coins and items. He frequently is attending our national convention with his fabulous stock of rare and choice material. His bourse table has contained the gold Doubloons, 1856 F.E. cents, Unc. 1914-D and other scarce items. Customers order purchases from his store from all parts of the world.

If you have been to the A.N.A. convention in Phila. you have met and seen Mrs. Steinberg at their bourse table. The Miami Rare Coin Co. have their display ad, buying gold coins in this issue.

RARE CHECK TOKEN

This Newton City, Kansas half fare Check is made of brass only (3) known, the reverse initials N.C. stand for Newton City.

A guide catalogue of street car tokens as far as we know doesn't exist. But there is one a "Hard Times Token" by Lyman Low.

More of these tokens and reference in next issue.

This rubbing by Lt. Harold Ford Jr., Alaska.

1882 DOUBLE STRIKE

This mint error bronze Indian cent is very scarce, a number of different types have been found of this same piece, struck double on a plain planchet.

Michael Kolman Jr. of (Federal Coin Exchange) puts out a Bulletin, The Mint Error Collector and is known to have the largest of this type collection.

The above coin was sent by A. G. Bass of Box 786, Athens, Ga. Mr. Bass is a regular subscriber and advertiser of our "Eaglet".

SPECIAL CLUB RATES

Two more clubs have sent in (10) or more Subs. during August, they are Oak Park Coin Club of Illinois and The Burlington Coin Club of Iowa.

Our offer of 10 or more subs. at $1.00 each is still good to club members! If your club has not sent in a list, ask your club officials to mention it at your next meeting. This is a great savings, help yourself, by helping us build up our circulation.
